Night School to Close.
The night school in Auburn will come to a close tonight with exercises at the Auburn High School. Certificates and diplomas will be given to about 20 students who have satisfactorily completed the course. The representation will be given by Principal Edwin W. Leary.
This year's night school graduation class is the largest in recent years. Prof. George F. Harford and Professor Leary will make short talks to the graduating students. There will be no formal exercises held. The night school will be continued in 1925.

PARIS ACCLAIMS RUMANIAN RULERS

Paris, April 11.—By the Associated Press.—Marianne, a pretty French blue toque and a handsome fur coat, Queen Marie of Rumania, Europe's youngest grandmother, arrived with King Ferdinand at the royal station in the Bois de Boulogne this morning for a three days' visit of state.
The queen was the object of an enthusiastic ovation as she rode down the Champs-Elysees beside Madame Millerand, wife of the French President. The Parisians, having no king of their own, are always at least fairly enthusiastic over visiting royalty, but today's tribute was a personal one, inspired in no small measure by the beauty of the visiting queen.
A bevy of Rumanian girls presenting the sovereigns with bouquets at the station, their brilliant peasant costumes giving a near-Oriental touch amidst the brilliance of full dress military and diplomatic uniforms. The king, dressed as a Rumanian field marshal, had an ultra-Balkan air, but Marie looked a Parisienne to her inner tips.

OBITUARY

Funeral of Lawrence Bruton.
The funeral of the late Lawrence Bruton was held from the family home in the town of Scipio at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. The services took place at St. Bernard's Church, Scipio Center, at 10:30. One of the largest crowds that ever attended a funeral at that church was present to pay a last tribute to the memory of the deceased. At the entrance to the church a procession of priests and attendants met the remains and a brief service was held, the procession leading the way to the altar where a solemn requiem high mass was offered. Rev. Frederick Straub was celebrant of the mass. Rev. John Smith of Moravia was deacon and Rev. Michael Groden of King Ferry was sub-deacon. At the conclusion of the mass the burial service was read.
Many offerings of flowers and mass cards testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held.
The remains were laid at rest in the family plot in St. Bernard's Cemetery. At the grave the committal service was read by Father Straub. The body was borne to the grave by five nephews and a cousin of the deceased.

Funeral of Rolland Atherly.
Funeral services for Rolland Atherly, 33, former Auburn druggist, who died in the South, were held privately yesterday from the home of his son, Clifford Atherly, 103 Dunning Avenue. Burial was in Fort Hill.
He is survived by two sons Fred and Clifford Atherly both of Auburn.
The first Oxford-Cambridge boat race was rowed in the year 1829. The series to date embraces just seventy-five contests. Of this number Oxford has won 40 and Cambridge 34. In 1877 the race resulted in a dead heat.

NATURAL to suppose that a receiving set with a long name and a large number of tubes will bring in more stations and at a greater distance than a set with a shorter name and fewer tubes!

The way to find out the truth is to put a De Forest Reflex Radiophone in the same room with any set made—no matter how many tubes it uses—no matter how long its name—no matter how great its price—and buy the one that suits you best.

You will find that the De Forest D-10 Reflex will get all the stations any other set will get, probably more clearly, certainly more easily, and probably for about half the money. Its upkeep cost in tubes and batteries will be much lower. You can move it around from room to room or operate it in your car. When a better set is made De Forest will make it.

Remember that De Forest invented broadcasting. Remember that De Forest invented the vacuum tube which makes all present-day radio possible.

De Forest D-10 Reflex Radiophone—a 4-tube long distance receiver using indoor loop, with a reputation for the clearest reception of broadcast in existence. Operates either on self-contained dry batteries, making it a portable set, or on the usual combination of storage and dry batteries. Sold on a direct comparison basis with any other set made, regardless of price. Price of set with loop $150.00.

N. Y. TOURIST WAYLAD, SLAIN WITH COMPANION BY BAND OF ALBANIANS

Just as George B. De Long of New York and Robert L. Colman of San Francisco were nearing the end of a Mediterranean tour, they were killed on the Tirana-Scutari highway. The double murder was attributed to highwaymen who infest the back country of the mountainous and sparsely settled country. De Long and Colman had remained chums since their college days. The former had just retired from the real estate business and Colman was a well known California financier. Mrs. De Long, whose first husband was Richard P. Lounsbury, is the daughter of the late James Ben All Haggis, mining magnate. She was to have joined De Long in London.

RED SQUIRRELS TAILS. Taken For Currency by Merchants in Exchange for Goods.

Red squirrel tails are "as good as gold" in Warren County, N. Y., according to a dispatch from Glens Falls published in an Albany newspaper. Merchants take them in exchange for goods and they even have been used for admission to the movies. Their value is 10 cents per tail.
In the section where this incident took place the grays were very numerous ten or twelve years ago. Then frequently and in a year or so to see the red squirrels were noted more a gray was most unusual. A campaign against the reds was staged by a couple of residents and more than 100 of them were killed in a month or so—and eaten, for the little animal is not at all bad food. The following year the grays began to show up again and two years later they were as plentiful as ever.—Newark, (N. J.) News.

gray from a red not much more than half its size. The pursuit began on a stone fence and continued up and down trees for at least five minutes, until the red apparently was satisfied that the other had been given a good fright.
Several years ago the county supervisors put a bounty on the squirrels, which were driving out the gray squirrels and, it is said, damaging orchards and other crops. This year the little animals are so numerous, probably due to a scarcity of nuts in the Adirondack forests, that hunting them is a profitable occupation. It is said that many men are making good wages by their shooting and payments of from $10 up to $100 to merchants, who took the tails in exchange for merchandise, have been reported by several members of the Board of Supervisors.
That the red squirrels will drive out the grays seems to be beyond question. Only a week or so ago the writer was vastly interested by observing the frantic flight of a big
