THE JAPANESE forces have followed up the advantage gained in the rout of General Kuropatkin's forces and they have captured Mukden and are now in possession of that point of vantage. The Russians have made a stubborn defense, but they have been outgeneraled and overwhelmed by the fighting Japs.

A DIRECT TAX is the fairest tax levied. The tax payer knows what he pays and sees what he gets for his money. But there is fear and trembling at Albany lest the State return to a direct tax and thus bring home to the farmers the fact that the administration of the affairs of the State is extravagant.

It embodies the conditions of a gift of $1,000 to the church by Mr. Ramey. ing raw material of bread-making declined moderately, while last year there was a sharp rise of about 15 cents a bushel, and oats also advanced to a price almost 20 cents a bushel above the present position. Corn was also higher a year ago, but the margin was not large. The decline in meats and dairy and garden products was general, but not significant, although butter is now about six cents a pound higher, and eggs about 10 cents a dozen more expensive than they were at this time in 1904, but the reverse is true as to potatoes and all kinds of pork products, and many minor articles. The only pronounced advance over last year's prices appears in the imported foodstuffs, such as coffee and sugar. Articles in the clothing class are now exactly a dollar lower, the most striking change occurring in cotton, which is now $38 a bale cheaper, or about one-half the cost in 1904. Some of the large variations in the opposite direction were advances of 25 cents a pound for rubber, 31 cents a pound for wool, and an average of about 2 cents a pound for hides. Iron and steel supplied much of the rise in the metal class, chiefly pig iron, as the finished steel shapes have not risen proportionately. Copper is also stronger, but in little changed, and petroleum products are now higher than a year ago, chiefly because of brick and some other building materials.

THOMAS J. BELL DEAD. Well Known Citizen Succumbed to Pneumonia in Richmond, Va. Thomas James Bell, one of Auburn's life long residents and one of the city's well known citizens died last night at 7 o'clock in the hotel of General John Murphy, at Richmond, Va., whose guest he was. Word conveying this sad news was received last night. His wife and son, Robert Lester Bell, were at the bedside when death ended his sufferings. The cause of death was pleuro pneumonia. The deceased had been in poor health for the past two years but during the last two months had been feeling fairly well. To effect a complete convalescence he planned a trip to Southern climes to escape the severe winter weather prevailing in this vicinity. He started in company with his wife, on February 10, for New York, the intention being to spend a few days there and then proceed by easy stages to Washington, Richmond and Florida. At New York the deceased was taken down with a severe cold contracted through change of climatic conditions, but he went on to Richmond, the cold not being severe enough to warrant his return home. At Richmond he was the guest of General John Murphy, a former Confederate soldier, who was entertained in this city by the family of the deceased last summer. About a week ago the cold developed into pneumonia and his son, Robert Lester Bell, was hurriedly summoned. Despite the best medical aid of the South death came last night.

The deceased was born in this city, in Clark street, October 8, 1840, and was in the 64th year of his age. His parents were John and Elizabeth (Wallis) Bell. His father was a native of the North of Ireland, of Scotch descent, and came to this city in 1833, where he engaged in business until 1857, and then moved onto a farm where he resided until 1868. In that year he established the livery in Garden street which he conducted until his retirement in January 1880. The deceased was educated in the Auburn common schools, and at the commencement of the Civil war enlisted in Company G Third New York Light Artillery, which was connected with the Eighteenth Army Corps, and during most of the time was engaged in garrison duty. After serving three years and one month, he was honorably discharged on October 30, 1867. He was appointed on the prison force holding the position for three years. In 1868 he purchased the present livery business, which he has successfully conducted until the present time. He served the Fifth ward very acceptably in the capacity of alderman for eight years. He represented that ward in the Board of Supervisors for four terms and was a member of the Health Board in 1883. He was a member of Seward-Crocker Post, G. A. R., and was a familiar figure at the annual reunions of the battle of Gettysburg, 1893 and 1902. He was a past commander of both the Seward and the Crocker posts before their amalgamation into one organization. He was a member of St. Paul's Lodge, No. 124, F. & A. M., a former member of the Auburn Gun club, and a member of Auburn Lodge, No. 474, B. P. O. Elks.

The Mayor at Geneva. Yesterday's Geneva Times has the following: "The musicians and others of the city are looking forward with much interest to the symphony concert and lecture to be given on Thursday evening of next week, March 16, in Collins hall by Hon. Thomas M. Osborne, of Auburn, assisted by an orchestra from Syracuse university. Mr. Osborne gave an entertaining lecture on Schumann a few weeks ago in Cox's hall which was greatly enjoyed. "Mr. Osborne, who is mayor of Auburn has versatile talents, being a politician, manufacturer, musician, lecturer and philanthropist. The proceeds of the concert will go to the George Junior Republic in which he is much interested. "The following are the musicians who will compose the orchestra: Coural L. Becker, first violin; Dr. Charles Muller, second violin; Emil K. Winkler, cello; Herbert Hill, flute; Carl Stevens, viola; W. A. White, bass; Louis B. Phillips, piano; George A. Russell, organ; Thomas M. Osborne, kettledrums."

Tea Trade of Auburn. 4,800 lbs of 50c Japan tea were delivered by the N. Y. C. R. R. Co. to L. L. Rea yesterday. Buying in a large way enables Rea to keep his tea and coffee up to their high drinking quality and to give to his customers large number of green trading stamps. Quick sales and small profits on his teas, coffees, baking powder, cocoa, chocolate extracts, etc., is why he is having the leading tea and coffee business of Auburn to-day. L. L. Rea's Tea store will give thousands of trading stamps Saturday to the trade.
