

The Coming Out of Our New Stock of MUSLIN UNDERWEAR!

Do you know whose judgment we relied upon in selecting our Muslin Underwear? Yours, the people's. They tested the goods by actual wear, and they came again and they bought the goods that they had worn before. That was sufficient. The manufacturer that pleased the people was our manufacturer, and out of many we selected that one. Now we sell but the one make, and we alone handle that make. Every garment bears witness to painstaking workmanship and conscientious attention to detail, in happy contrast to some of the carelessly made kinds.

SUDDENLY SUMMONED.

Robert Grant, of Aurelius Avenue, Dropped Dead Yesterday Morning.
Robert Grant, of No. 49 Aurelius Avenue, died suddenly yesterday, death being due to heart trouble, the result of absorption of pus. Mr. Grant's death was entirely unexpected and is a great shock to his family and friends.
Mr. Grant was in his usual good health in the morning when he arose. He had breakfast with the family and about 15 minutes to 9 o'clock, started to go to the market. He went to the place where he kept his hat and coat and doined them. He had just asked for a drink of water, when he was stricken, and died instantly, without a word.

Coroner Laird was summoned, decided an inquest was unnecessary and gave heart trouble, resulting from absorption of pus, as the cause of death.
Mr. Grant was an old resident of the city. He was born in England and was 62 years and nine months old. He moved to America and shortly after came to Auburn, arriving here in 1837. Since that time he has lived here continuously. He was employed in the shops of Wadsworth & Son for 27 years and was respected by his employers and fellow workers.

When Cowan's battery was formed Mr. Grant joined it, enlisting in this city on November 31, 1861. He served three years and on February 6, 1864, re-enlisted in the field. Mr. Grant was assigned later to Smith's division, fourth corps, and later was assigned in an artillery brigade of the Sixth corps. Mr. Grant was in many important engagements, among them being the battle of the Wilderness, Gettysburg, Mine Run and others.

Mr. Grant is survived by his wife, three children, Miss Pearl Grant, George Grant and Robert Grant, jr., and one brother, Moses Grant.

A BANKRUPTCY DECISION.

Judge Coxe Settles a Point of Interest to Every Business Man.
In a decision handed down in the United States Circuit court Saturday Judge Coxe holds that all judgments and levies of the State courts are null and void so far as they relate to the property of a bankrupt if recovered within four months prior to the filing of a petition in bankruptcy, either by or against him. Judge Coxe also holds that all creditors of a bankrupt are to be considered equal.

It is the first time that the question at issue has been decided in this district, although there have been decisions in other districts, some holding one way, some another. Judge Thomas, of Brooklyn, has held that only when a petition is filed against a bankrupt do the judgments fail. Judge Coxe declares in his decision that it makes no difference whether one goes into bankruptcy voluntarily or involuntarily. Judgments recovered within four months prior to the filing of a petition in bankruptcy are null and void.

MUST GO TO TO THE COURTS.

The Railroad Commission Stands by Its Decision on the Merits of the Road.
Announcement is made from Albany that the State Railroad commission has denied the application made by the Nova Scotia, Skaneateles & Syracuse railroad company for a re-argument on its application for a certificate that the road is a public necessity.

The law provides that the Railroad commission cannot hear another argument in the case within a year and if an appeal is taken it must be to the courts.
President Wing T. Parker states the matter will be carried to the Appellate Division of the Supreme court in the Fourth department as soon as the necessary papers can be prepared. The officials say they are not discouraged.

TWO CHARGED WITH ASSAULT.

Sheriff Wood's list of boarders was increased by two arrivals Saturday, one late in the afternoon and the other in the evening, and both for assault in the third degree.
Irving Sherman, of Genoa, was the first to put in an appearance. He stands accused of making a vicious attempt to do bodily harm to a fellow being and Justice of the Peace Byron Hunt committed him for further examination.

H. Elmer Horton, of Throop, has a sentence of 90 days to serve. Although 27 years of age he has not yet learned what is the proper manner in which to treat his mother who made complaint of Horton's treatment of her to Justice of the Peace George W. Cooper. He was arrested, found guilty and sentenced accordingly.

Mrs. Margaret Kenney.
The funeral of the late Margaret, wife of Richard Kenney, who died suddenly Friday morning, was held from her late home in Niles yesterday at 9 o'clock with services at St. Mary's church, this city, at 11 o'clock. There were many floral tributes. The services were conducted by Rev. J. J. Gibbons. Mrs. Kenney was a kind and loving woman who made friends with all who knew her. The remains were laid to rest in the family plot in St. Joseph's cemetery. The bearers were Stephen Riely, Peter Riely, John Ford, Michael Crowley, Charles Toole and Timothy Hartnett.

THE GALLUP CASE AGAIN.

The Gallup matter was up before Justice Duwelle at Lyons Monday. The argument is being made on Frank M. Leary's motion for an order to compel Silas N. Gallup to appear before William S. Elder for the purpose of being examined as to his ideas of the power of attorney vested in him by Wayne when the latter died over his property. Mr. Leary and Daniel L. Hunt were present in the interest of Wayne, while Harry T. Dayton and Attorney Weed, of Rochester, looked after the case for Silas N.

A SMALL FARM SOLD.

Sheriff Wood sold at the Court house yesterday in a mortgage foreclosure action in which Anna M. Tillot is the plaintiff and Julia Tehan and others are defendants a farm of four and three-fourth acres located in the town of Venice. The property was knocked down to George M. Sisson, of Venice, for $450. The amount of the incumbrance was $376.29.

REACHED A SETTLEMENT.
There is every likelihood that the long standing dispute between Carlton A. Porter as plaintiff and Frederick K. Weed and George H. Mills as defendants, which is the famous chicken coop case, will be settled without further litigation, save for the order of discontinuance. Mr. Weed's chicken coop and lease were scheduled to be sold on the steps of the Court house Saturday morning and Referee Frank S. Wright was on hand to conduct the sale, the purpose of which was to satisfy a judgment held by plaintiff against the defendants.
The sale, however, did not proceed as the defendant thought strongly of settling and an adjournment was taken until late that afternoon. William H. Burby, attorney for the defendants, announced that his clients would liquidate the full amount of the judgment, with costs amounting to a little over $124, in which case the sale will not go on.

SENTENCED TO AUBURN.
Justice Hisecock at Syracuse Thursday sentenced two men to Auburn prison. Edgar W. Swetland admitted forging the name of William W. Swetland as an endorsement on a check. He is 36 years of age and said it was his first conviction. He was sentenced to three years. Philip Ryan and Fred Smith were indicted for grand larceny, second degree, in stealing wire from the poles of the Syracuse Electric Light company. Ryan is 35 years of age, and has a mother in Albany. His sentence was one year and six months in Auburn prison. Smith is 28 years old, and married. He was sentenced to the Elmira reformatory.

Semi-Annual Sale of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Muslin Underwear.
The goods we offer are made by well paid operators in clean factories and are not made in sweat shops. Our order was given last August, long before the advance in cottons and embroideries, and at a time when more pains is taken in the manufacture. The prices we quote here could not be equaled if bought to-day in 50 case lots. We hand the goods to you at a smaller profit than any house in this State.

Sale commenced Saturday, Jan. 20, and will close Saturday, Jan. 27.

A $7,000 Stock of Muslin Underwear.
