NOW THEY SAY THAT Du Maurier didn't write Tribby. That the gentleman is a plagiarist was not discovered in Boston, but by some Denver student who alleges that the work is a translation from the French and was written 75 years ago. Tribby and Little Billie 75 years old. Never.

WHILE THE WHITEWASH is going round Senator Abern has made application for a coat. In the investigation into the charges against the Advertiser's patron saint, Raines of Ontario, growing out of those "mean and nasty things" which Editor Quigg has been saying about him, Senator Abern has been charged with having had a finger in the pie. Of course he denies it and he, as a Democrat, expects the same committee will mould for him a halo while it is in the business on Saine Raine's account.

THE ROSEBERY GOVERNMENT is not as weak as appearances indicate and the latest test vote shows that the premier is in a better position than he was two months ago when a speedy dissolution was predicted. In the Commons yesterday Sir William Harcourt's motion that the rest of the session be devoted entirely to government business was opposed by the entire Conservative strength, but the government won by 53 majority. Nothing great can be expected of Rosebery, however, and it is plain that he can never fill Gladstone's shoes.

JAPAN IS NOT inclined to accept the advice of the European powers, relative to concessions to her vanquished foe. It is now said that the Russian demands are couched in a very determined form, but the Japanese will not yield to an attempt to deprive them of the well earned fruits of victory with equanimity. It is possible that the war in the East may soon be renewed with Russia as an ally of the Chinese. Then would be seen a substantial test of modern implements of war which would prove very instructive.

IT IS NOW OFFICIALLY given out that Spain has conceded the demands of the United States for reparation for the attack on the Alliance and will make honorable satisfaction for the mistake, admitting that the American vessel was outside Spanish territorial waters when the Conde de Venadito fired on her. The Jingoes would have preferred bloodshed to such a peaceful solution of the incident, but the Jingoes don't cut much figure in the conduct of national affairs at this time and they never should.

A GAMBLER WHO FOUND the limitations of 33 cards too small for the accommodation of an eight hand party at poker has by the addition of a couple of cards to a suit made a 60 card deck and obliterated the difficulty. The cards that are added are the eleven and twelve spades of each suit. The ten spot in order to alter it into an eleven has an additional spot in the center, and to become a twelve spade there is given the card three parallel rows of four spots. The new cards take their natural positions between the ten and Jack and add to the uncertainty of the national game which to our mind was sufficient with the limited deck.

AL G. Field's minstrel's an organization which has met with success all over the country, will appear at the Burks tomorrow evening. Some how or another the tone or merits of a minstrel company is judged by its band and parade. Let this be a fair criterion or not, it's the rule that has been applied in this city at least. Past experience has taught people that it is a pretty good rule to go by. If the band is poor, music being the basis of a minstrel performance, it is pretty sure to follow that the musical portion of the programme will not be up to the standard. It is claimed that the band with the Field minstrels and Pantomime of Aladdin is one of superior excellence. The parade and band concert will take place at 11:30 a. m., and as everybody will hear the band and see the parade they can form their own opinions.

Warner Gardner, baggage master at the New York Central station, has handed in his resignation and it has been accepted. Timothy Tehan, tallyman in the freight office, has been appointed to fill Mr. Gardner's place and will begin his work at once. Mr. Gardner has made a courteous, careful official and Mr. Tehan's long experience in railroad matters should enable him to discharge his duties most acceptably.

Mrs. Minnie Mack, wife of Edward Mack, died at her home, No 8 Frances street, yesterday morning. Mrs. Mack's maiden name was Gallavrin, and she was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gallavrin of No. 416 North Franklin street, Syracuse. She was 35 years old and her parents leave three brothers and three sisters all of Syracuse. The body will be taken to Syracuse for burial.

15 LATHROP TO GO?

Another New York Herald Story Concerning the Prison Investigation. Yesterday's New York Herald has the following from Albany: "As a result of the investigation into the administration of the Department of State Prisons, it has been practically determined that charges will shortly be preferred before the Governor against General Superintendent Austin Lathrop. The investigation has been conducted by a sub-committee, the chairman of which is Senator E. H. Kilburn. The inquiry was largely set on foot by publications made by the Herald regarding the management of the prisons in Sing Sing, Dannemora and Auburn, and despite the fact that the committee held secret sessions the Herald for a long time had the lead on important facts which the members of the committee for the first time read in the Herald's news columns. "The report of the sub-committee has been completed and will probably be presented to the Legislature not later than Wednesday. This report, it is understood, finds that Superintendent Lathrop is the responsible head of the Prison Department, and is answerable for most of the bad doing in the Auburn and Dannemora prisons, because in many instances they were permitted to continue after his attention had been called to their existence.

"In connection with the Auburn prison it is learned that while the warden of the prison is a man named Strout the real warden is Mr. Babcock, the chairman of the Democratic County Committee of Cayuga county, who has been furnishing meat to the prisoners. This meat has been declared by the comptroller and is also declared by the committee to have been of a notoriously inferior character while the price was excessive.

"The committee will show that Mr. Lathrop's attention was called to shortcomings in connection with this and other concerns, but that he did nothing to terminate them, although he possessed extraordinary powers to regulate any abuse in the prisons. The manner in which the State has been cheated in the work of convicts is also dwelt upon, and the committee will probably also endeavor to make some computations as to the money the State has lost through the sale to favorites of valuable property of the State at nominal figures.

"A large portion of the report will be devoted to describing the remarkable lack of interest in the prison at Dannemora, including the almost unlimited freedom of convicts, the assessment of keepers for political committees and that sort of thing.

"Whether the charges against Mr. Lathrop will be formally presented to Governor by the legislative committee or whether they will be laid before him by some private citizen has not yet been determined. When they are made the Governor will probably furnish Superintendent Lathrop with a copy of the charges, and appoint a commissioner to take testimony.

Recorder Clark had one drunk before him this morning who paid $2 rather than go to jail for 10 days. The man was also charged with acts tending to produce a breach of the peace at the home of his father-in-law. He proposed to leave the house and Recorder Clark held the case open until Friday to give him a chance to keep his promise. John Doran J. D. from Auburn, the old jimer, was before Recorder Clark for being drunk. In default of $5 fine he went to jail for 30 days.

THE FORMAL TRANSFER.

To-morrow the road of the Auburn City Railway company will probably be transferred to the syndicate which is to construct the extensions and reconstruct the present road.

Messrs. Beebe and Craig have declared that despite the delay in the Genesee street matter, they are ready to commence work on the other streets as soon as the contracts are secured and they will probably have an opportunity to begin as there is said to be little or no opposition to the road through the Sixth and Tenth wards.

Neither President Eddy, of the old corporation, nor any of the new owners is in town to-day but all are expected to-morrow.

The action of the Common Council meets with general favor and for once the aldermen find themselves applauded. A misapprehension seems to exist regarding the alterations in the franchise as originally submitted. Alderman Firth's suggestion is that it is not the non-union citizens but employees in the construction was not added to the franchise.

Mr. Taber, counsel for Farmer Case, came back from Rochester last evening apparently very little worried by the defeat. He says that Mr. Case doesn't intend to appeal just yet from the order of Justice Ramsey.

THE FREE READING ROOM.

The tenth season of the Auburn free reading room closes to-night. The room has had its usual large attendance during the past winter and the annual report of the superintendent shows that the room has been more popular than before, and is in a flourishing condition. The report is as follows:

Total attendance for six months 29,233. Monthly attendance has been as follows: November 5,943, December, 6,053, January 5,835, February 5,019, March 4,856, April 2,614. Average week day attendance, 186. Average Sunday attendance, 241.

The janitor, Frank Tallman, reports good order and general observance of rules with but few exceptions. Papers, magazines and books have all been in constant use, with but little mutilation and none carried away as in former seasons.

The patrons of the room have been largely workmen (in and out of employment) also merchants, clerks, students, professional men and a few farmers.

The writing desks have been occupied most of the time and it is estimated that over 4,000 letters have been written upon them during the season. JAMES HAMILTON, Superintendent.

THE BOYS READ "HER" LETTER

A Loving Epistle That Never Came to an Unhappy Middle Man's Northward.

"The course of true love never did run smooth," said Shakespeare, but there is a swain in sweet Auburn to-day who believes that some of its roughness are rougher than they need be.

A few days ago he wrote a glowing letter to "her," and having duly looked it over to see if it properly expressed the tender emotions that were tearing him, he sealed it in an envelope that he imprudently forgot to address.

The envelope, however, had his employer's business card "lovingly and faithfully" imprinted in the corner; and thus it happened that in due course of time the letter was returned from the postoffice to the business house indicated. The clerk there are human, with human limitations, and cannot identify the writer of writing that is not written. So they were obliged to open the letter before they could restore it to its owner; and—[great applause].

THE SUTCLIFFE BREWERY.

Negotiations Pending For Its Purchase by One of Town Parties.

Joseph B. Hughes of Hamilton, Ont., and W. H. Augspurger, of Buffalo, are in town to-day with a view of purchasing the Sutcliffe Brewing company's plant. Mr. Hughes when approached by a BULLETIN reporter this morning was very reticent and seemed loath to give any statement concerning the deal. He said, however, that it would be probably two weeks before matters could be put in shape for a sale of the property at various legal complications now exist.
