FATHER HENDRICKS REMEMBERED.

A Number of His Parishioners Present Him With $112.

UNION SPRINGS, Feb. 9.—Friday evening about twenty-five or thirty parishioners of Rev. T. H. Hendricks, headed by Patrick Smith, assembled at the parsonage to bid him farewell before leaving for his new field of labor and also to present him with a purse of about $115. W. H. Cutler made the presentation as follows: "Doubtless there are many here to-night who are better able to express the feelings of your friends than I. My knowledge of the vocabulary is too limited to convey the sentiment which prompts us to assemble now. The parting of a beloved pastor from his people has always been an occasion of deep regret, and we feel that never has this truth come home to us with more force than at the present time. We know it to be a law of nature that "our loss is another's gain," yet we find it extremely difficult to reconcile our hearts to this charitable view of the case. Our pain at this parting is doubled as we realize that your efforts for our temporal and spiritual welfare have been "Old Father Time's" accomplice in sprinkling with gray the locks which adorn your noble brow. In presenting you this purse we hope you will not measure our gratitude in the ratio of its monetary contents, but that you will accept it as a testimonial of the love and respect which fills the heart of each and every one of the donors. And now, before you enter upon that new field of labor which removes you from our midst, we wish to assure you that the remembrance of your many kind and noble deeds will never be effaced from the memories of your numerous friends in Union Springs and vicinity. Father Hendricks responded in a few well chosen remarks, thanking them and the donors for their kindness. After passing round the cigars the party returned home.

The Storm at Albany.

ALBANY, Feb. 9.—The storm of Saturday night paralyzed wire service in every branch in this city, the weight of the wet snow causing poles to snap. The mayor ordered the electric circuits to be turned off and the city was in darkness Saturday and Sunday nights and it will be some time before the electric lights will be in working order. A few electric cars were allowed to run this morning but the current will probably be ordered shut off again.

SWINDLERS AT WORK.

They Took Orders for Pictures Which They Did not Deliver.

A swindle that was worked successfully by a couple of canvassers, about six weeks ago, has just come to light. The men represented themselves as canvassers for the American Portrait club of 18 and 20 Court street, Buffalo and took orders to enlarge photographs, giving the picture free, the only charge being $1.75 for the frame. The fellows took dozens of orders, and on each were paid a deposit of fifty or seventy-five cents in advance. They gave receipts on which were pasted slips on which appeared the name of the concern which they purported to represent. A number of the parties who were duped wrote to the concern in Buffalo and were informed that they had no agents here.

KETTLE FALLS, WASHINGTON.

Clippings from "Kettle Falls Pioneer," Jan'y 19th, 91.

Henry Herzberger and Edward Springer, of Rochester, N. Y., arrived in this city Monday, and, like everyone else coming here, were not long in making up their minds that Kettle Falls had a future. Herzberger with the location, prosperity and future outlook of this young giant, that he secured a number of lots, on which he will build and start up in business. He has had a great deal of experience in the butcher business and is a man of capital. We hope he will conclude to erect a pork packing establishment, an industry that would pay handsomely here on the money invested and where all the stock required could be obtained right at our door. Now is the time to get in.

A Surprise.

The D. and I. P. E. club gave a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. A. Kierst, Saturday evening, the occasion being the birthday of the former. The evening was spent in progressive euchre, and the prizes were won by Eugene Cowan and Mrs. P. Hahn, Charles Young and Mrs. Lynch. During the evening the host was presented with a handsome hand painted cuspidor, as a birthday gift from the club. William Englert, whose birthday occurred a few days previous, and who gave the club a hospitable reception last week, was presented with a duplicate of Mr. Kierst's gift. The last of the series before the Lenten season will be given by Mrs. Lynch, to-night.

For the Orphans.

The World's Novelty company will give an entertainment this evening, in the Holy Family school house, for the benefit of the Auburn Orphan Asylum. On to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, a matinee will be given the children, and in the evening another performance for grown folks. This is a good opportunity to spend a pleasant evening, and assist the sisters.

AURELIUS.

CAYUGA, Feb. 9.—The funeral of Mrs. Mary Dorsey, relict of the late Michael Dorsey of this village, was held Saturday, the remains being taken to Springport for interment. She was 78 years old and had been in feeble health for some time, but the symptoms were not of an alarming character until the beginning of last week. She passed away peacefully, surrounded by her family and devoted friends. Her husband was a soldier in the late war, being a member of Company E, 9th Artillery. He served until compelled by a dangerous wound received in battle, to retire. Returning home, he lingered along for several years when he died. Mrs. Dorsey was a kindly, generous and good natured woman, and her death at her advanced age will be regretted by numerous friends. She leaves four daughters: Mrs. Dennis Hart of this village; Mrs. William Ferguson and Mrs. N. M. Keist of Buffalo; and Mrs. James Madden of Hoboken, N. J. The only son was killed in the war.

DEATH OF WILLIAM F. HERRLING.

An Old and Respected Resident Passes Suddenly Away.

William F. Herrling, the proprietor of the meat market at 40 North street, died at his home in Seymour street, yesterday morning, very unexpectedly. Mr. Herrling had been unwell for a day or so, but was at his store on Friday. His death was the result of heart trouble, and was a shock to his family and friends.

Mr. Herrling was born in Germany, 63 years ago. He came to this country when a young man and for thirty-three years has resided in Auburn. He was a veteran of the late war, having served in the 16th New York Heavy Artillery. He was a member of Auburn Lodge of Masons, and a Knight of Pythias. He leaves besides a wife, six children, F. W. Herrling of Skaneateles, and Henry F., Edward H., S. Willard, Oscar G., and Jennie J. Herrling of this city.

Died of Starvation.

SING SING, N. Y., Feb. 9.—Mrs. William Stanton gave birth to a child last Monday and has since died for want of proper care and food. Her husband, who is a pipe moulder, works in the foundry near by. He is a hard drinker and neglected her. She had very little to eat or drink and was in a very exhausted condition. Mrs. McDonald, a neighbor, called in to see her yesterday morning, and found her dead in bed. A doctor was called and said she died from a complication of diseases brought on by starvation. The child had died and was found buried in the back yard in an old cloth. Four children were born before, who are all dead. One was found buried wrapped in a newspaper in the cemetery about two years ago. The coroner held an inquest on the body of Mrs. Stanton yesterday afternoon and rendered a verdict in accordance with the testimony. She was 36 years old.

Funeral of Sherman S. Williams.

The funeral of the faithful watchman, the late Sherman S. Williams, who was drowned in the outlet, last Wednesday, while in the discharge of his duty, was held from the First M. E. church, of which he was a member, yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended by his former associates and friends. Rev. Dr. O. A. Houghton, pastor of the church, conducted the funeral service. Representatives from two different Temperance organizations of which he was a member, attended the funeral and acted as bearers. The remains were placed in the receiving vault at Fort Hill cemetery.

A Protest Against a Catholic Bishop.

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 9.—Thirteen well known Catholics have written to Archbishop O'Brien protesting against his taking sides with the Conservatives on the trade question, stating that they looked upon his language as involving the declaration that if the candidates for the representation of Halifax at the pending elections were to advocate unrestricted reciprocity with the United States, his grace would feel called upon to command his people to vote against such candidates.

Lacenois Mr. Gould.

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 9.—Concerning the despatch about the agitation in Pennsylvania railroad circles about his trip over the terminal and other systems, Mr. Gould laconically said yesterday: "You will have to take that with a few grains of allowance." When asked about the report that he, Huntington and others, were considering a consolidation of all transcontinental roads west of the Mississippi he said: "It's new to me."

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—The State agent of a Savannah dispatch to the World that Jay Gould is ill, was denied to-day by Mr. George Gould, who said at noon: "I have just been talking with my father over the wire. He says he is feeling splendid. He is not sick."

TERSE TELEGRAMS.

—A boiler in a steam saw mill near Reidsville, Ga., exploded on Saturday night, instantly killing six men, two white and four colored.

—Litigation growing out of the default of Country Clerk Sullivan has been begun in Indianapolis, Ind., in a suit against the Meridian National bank. The suit is to recover $15,000 of the county's money used by Sullivan to liquidate his personal obligations at the bank.

—Edmund J. Huling died at Saratoga, this morning, aged 71. For some years past he has been identified with nearly every newspaper that has been published here, and was for a long time on the editorial staff of the Saratogian, as well as correspondent for several out-of-town papers. Fifty years ago he was clerk of the old Union hall.
