DEPOSED.

THE AGED VETERANS OF THE GERMAN ARMY HEARTLESSLY DISMISSED.

The Iron Heated Emperor's Reward for Years of Service.

MR SAVAGE IN CLOVER—THE EMPEROR IS NOT ILL.

LONDON, May 15.—Reports of the ill health of the Emperor of Germany are again current, but are fully contradicted by dispatches from the most trustworthy sources at Berlin. The monarch is reported to be thinner than usual and his feverish restlessness knows no diminution but his mental and physical energy is unabated, and the swelling in his ear troubles him less. He certainly manages to attend to all the affairs of the empire as his subordinates know to their great discomfort. As was instance of his decisions over these matters, which hardly be supposed to concern him, it appears that he has addressed a remonstrance to the King of Wurtemberg who demands an unbearable without the company of Mr. Savage, his former intimate. The American has led a not uneventful life during his practical banishment from the King's society, but he has been much having been open to him as a consolation for his exile from Stuttgart. The Wurtemberg "pook bah" Herr Miltzsch is much disliked by the people of the little realm, he being generally considered as a mere mouthpiece of Prince Bismarck, who is not at all popular there, and his threat, once withdrawn from office, if the reinstatement of Bismarck took place, would greatly please the populace although it is doubtful if the King will dare to disregard the intimation received from Berlin.

It is a significant indication of the fearful nature of the German Emperor that he paid heed to the remonstrances of his most trusted friends against the many changes he has made in the personnel of the staff and line. The general officers suspended last year on account of their age were over 80 in number, eight of them being corps commanders. The indignation of these men who had grown gray in the service of their country and that of their families and friends was naturally intense. Their fall meant the loss of dignity and privilege and in the case of those without private means the reduction of pay that at any time hardly lifted the recipient above the state of genteel poverty. To all protestations the Kaiser coolly but somewhat heartily replied that the promotions would gain him as many friends as the retirements would enemies and of a class more likely to live to show their gratitude than the others were to give any practical demonstration of the ill feelings they might entertain. This proclaimed exhibition of his preference for young officers already too dominant in the German army and which has an able exemplar in the person of Prince Hohenzollern as shown in his speech at Metz wherein he vaingloriously and threateningly boasted that Alsace was at the cost of so much blood shall remain the prize of the victor while there is a German living to defend it.

Was He Dead?

THE WIFE AND MOTHER OF BISHOP, THE MIND READER, CLAIM HE WAS IN FRANCE WHEN THE AUTOPSY WAS PERFORMED.

New York, May 15.—The wife and mother of Washington Irving Bishop, the mind reader, have arrived in this city and both claim that Bishop was not dead but merely in a trance when the physicians made their post mortem examination and that his death was caused by the surgical instruments it seems that but four hours elapsed from the time of his reported death until Doctors Irwin, Ferguson and House were making a post mortem examination of the body. The widow of the mind reader states that he had suffered several times from cataleptic attacks and has lain in a trance, apparently dead, for periods varying from six to fifty-two hours. On one occasion in Malta she says "physicians pronounced him dead and advised preparation for interment. His friends held a different belief and in a little over two days he recovered." About two years ago Bishop while suffering with a dangerous illness was treated by Dr. Womersley S. Robertson of 25 East Twentieth street this city. While at the doctor's house a cataleptic attack occurred and remained in a trance like condition for two days. The physicians who performed the autopsy however, say there can be no possible doubt of Bishop's death, before the autopsy was decided upon.

Editor Outrigger.

HIS VIEWS ON THE RELATIONS BETWEEN FRANCE AND GERMANY.

New York, May 15.—Editor Oswald Outrigger of the Staats Zeitung arrived yesterday on the steamship Werra after an absence of eight months in Europe. In conversation last night he said, "Emperor William is suffering from a trouble in his head which has made him partially deaf and fears are entertained that it will become total. He spends a large part of his time inspecting Germany's military establishment which is undoubtedly the dearest in the world. I saw soldiers every where and the subject of the military was uppermost in the mind of the people. Just as present Germany is changing its small arms for those of heavier calibre but this is only postponing the inevitable event of war between France and Germany. The people understand this and feel confident that they can give the Frenchman a sound thrashing when the time comes."

Phil Daily Ill.

New York, May 15.—It is stated the Phil Daily, the noted sporting man, afflicted with very serious brain trouble and that his physicians fear that he is breaking down mentally. Every effort seems to have been made to keep the fact from the public but it is now ascertained that he was stricken down on April 6 and until a few days ago he has remained in strict seclusion at his apartments in this city. He is now at his Long Branch home and his physicians have impressed upon him and his family the necessity of keeping away from all business. Among sporting men it is said that Daly's derangement is partly the outcome of 7877 straitened financial circumstances.

Clutch Bang at Work.

CANTON, Tex., May 15.—Reports from all parts of Hancock county show that clutch bugs are annoying farmers to a considerable extent. In some places it is believed that the crops will be ruined.

British American Seaman.

THEY COMMIT OUTRAGES ON INOFFENSIVE CITIZENS AT CAPE BRETON.

OTTAWA, Ont., May 15.—The Department of Customs has been informed by the sub collector, at Magoonish, Cape Breton, that a number of American fishing vessels recently put in there and their crews have been conducting themselves in a scandalous manner. On the 25th some of the crews of the E. B. Whelan of Gloucester, Mass., went ashore and visited the house of Thomas Donovan, lighthouse keeper at that port, and brutally mistreated him. Donovan being a weakly man was not able to defend himself and was seriously injured. These men then smashed Donovan's boat to pieces and afterward treated a boat belonging to the light house keeper in a similar manner. A number of boats were afterward set on fire and their owners secured them again. The Gloucester men assaulted several inoffending residents and then returned to their vessels and sailed away. The minister of customs has the matter under consideration with a view to preventing a recurrence of such outrages and securing compensation for the damage done.

Has Dr. Cronin Sailed?

HIS FRIENDS WILL DRAG LAKE MICHIGAN FOR HIS BODY.

MONTREAL, May 15.—Many leading Irishmen here believe that Cronin sailed from this city by the last outgoing Allen line steamer for Glasgow. A person resembling him secured passage by the steamer for Liverpool but a few hours before the vessel sailed he disappeared from the board and removed his effects saying he was going to remain here. An ex-president of the Elberian Brotherhood who formerly resided in Chicago says he knows Cronin. He was working on the Glasgow steamer when he boarded her. He says that he recognized him and that he had seen him in the city of Montreal here ten days ago.

CHICAGO, May 15.—Dr. Cronin's friends have decided to drag Lake Michigan for the body of the missing doctor who they persistently believe has been murdered. The work will begin this morning. The machine has been retained and two expert divers will go along with it to assist in the work.

T. T. Conklin prepared a long card to the public in which he rebuffed the facts so far as is known in the Cronin disappearance. He hints forward arguments with which the public is already familiar to show that Cronin's alleged presence in Toronto, Ont., was a "fake" and reiterates his belief that the doctor is the victim of foul play at the hands of his enemies.

Two Storm Meet.

THE CRASH WAS TERRIBLE—VINEYARDS DESTROYED.

KINROSS, N. Y., May 15.—Along the portion of the Hudson river and in the Catskill mountains last night there was a severe electrical storm. Two storms, each travelling in a circular direction, met near Slide mountain. There was a terrific crash and rain fell in torrents. In localities in the mountains it looked as though there had been a cloud burst. Dispatches from several points in the fruit growing belt along the Hudson river state that in localities indicating injury on growing fruit. Part of one Concord vineyard was riddled by the hail as though by grape and cannon. Several small buildings are reported to have been struck by the electric field.

Killed by Whiskey.

TWO YOUNG BOYS DIE IN CONVULSIONS FROM THE EFFECT OF ALCOHOL.

CHICAGO, May 15.—Two young men, Tim Sullivan 18 years old and Tom Corry 19 years of age had quite a fight with King alcohol yesterday with fatal results. Young Sullivan's brother is a saloon keeper who engaged the boys to move a whiskey barrel into the cellar. They found a bucket full of liquor in the barrel and proceeded to make themselves comfortable. They emptied the bucket between them and were in a paralyzed state of drunkenness. This gave way to a stupor and later on to convulsions. The two boys were found some time later lying insensible on the ground and their features in a horribly distorted shape. Sullivan died two hours after taking the first drink. Corry is still in such a critical condition that his death is expected at any time.

Pension Agents as Politicians.

CORRESPONDENCE THAT GENERAL BLACK SHOULD HAVE DESTROYED.

NEW YORK, May 15.—A Washington special to the Sun says, "Last fall many of the special agents of the pension office were utilized by General Black as political missionaries. It was not very difficult for them to look after politics while traveling over the country. From time to time they reported to Gen. Black by personal letter and these letters accumulated until they were made up into packages. These packages have within a few days been turned over to Commissioner Tanner who will adorn his annual report next fall with copious citations from these letters." It is reported that General Black left the correspondence at the Pension office after the election. No rational explanation of this has been offered.

Murdered.

JOHN SCHROEDER IN A FIT OF INEPTITUDE KILLS HIS WIFE AND CUTS HIS OWN THROAT.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 15.—John Schroeder, a German saloon keeper 37 years old, horrified the city by the murder of his wife under peculiarly atrocious circumstances. Mrs. Schroeder carrying a nine months old baby she morning went into a bar room where her husband was opening for the day. Apparently in a fit of insanity he sprang upon her and almost severed her head from her body with a razor. The woman fell to the floor and died instantly. The blood almost drowned her child. Schroeder ran to the common near by knelt down and killed himself with the same razor used on his wife. There was hereditary insanity in the family. Schroeder was instantly taken to the hospital.

The Parnell Commission.

FATHER EGAN SAYS THE LEAGUE DOES NOT COUNTENANCE MURDER.

LONDON, May 15.—At today's session of the Parnell committee Father Egan, a Catholic priest from Longhrea, testified that the leading man of Longhrea belonged to the National League. No serious crime had been committed in that district from the formation of the League branch of the League to its suppression by the government, with the single exception of the murder of a policeman named Hinton. This was a "fake" comment system. In a meeting of the league and the witnesses of the crime denounced from the altar.

Trouble in a Railroad Company.

NEW YORK, May 15.—The attempt made by Henry Villard to retain control of the Oregon & Trans Continental Co. by an issue of $10,000,000 of preferred stock just before the books closed for the annual election provoked a good deal of unfavorable comment yesterday. It has also resulted in the resignation of three members of the board of directors who take that course in order to express their disapproval of Villard's methods. They are William L. Bull, the senior partner of the banking house of Edward Sweet & Co., who has just been re-elected president of the Stock Exchange, Sidney Dillon and Gardner M. Lane both of the Union Pacific company.

A new store in course of erection between Eleventh and Thirteenth streets on E street was also razed and a workman severely injured. A building in the southern portion of the city was leveled. The wind whirled from points all about the sound so that the storm was severe in that quarter. No casualties among the shipping or on land are reported.

CHICAGO, May 15.—The hotel men's banquet at the Palmer house was a magnificent affair, covering being held for 300 guests. To day will be given up entirely to pleasure. "Billy" Knobles' Window.

One of the most attractive exhibits in this city is the window of Knobles' Restaurant in North street, which is enough to make the average man hungry, so temptingly are the choice viands displayed. Fruits and flowers enhance the beauty of the window where are shown all the delicacies of the season, besides the more substantial articles of food. There are frogs legs, brook trout, Quaco lake trout, soft shell clams, spring chicken, sea turtle, North river shad, Chockebay river trout, Baltimore black bass, Detroit river white shad, shad roe, vegetables, steaks, liver and bacon, strawberries and tropical fruits. These and more are tastefully arranged and reflect credit on Billy Knobles' ability to dress a window and cater to the public taste.

When Speaker Cole's bill appropriating $50,000 for a normal and training school at Watkins came up, Mr. Sloan entered a protest against the policy of erecting more normal schools. He said there were already ten in the State and in them there was room for many more students. The finance committee reported favorably several bills providing for normal and training schools. Messrs. Fassett and Sloan dissented to all of them and Mr. Lincoln to part them. Mr. Blumenthal's general school bill came in from the Assembly but Mr. Robertson objected to its being received on the ground that a similar bill had been already killed by the Senate.

Battled His Bill.

Ben — was one of the chattiest and pleasantest newspaper men that ever wielded a blue pencil at a Kansas City office. He was a man who was a good deal in the story for it has to deal with one of his weaknesses, and why mention names? The weakness was not exactly a passion for strong drink, for that had become a habit, but it consisted in an inability to pay for his dozen daily "fingers." So mine host Gaston one day counted up something like $90 slated against Ben. He never expected Ben to pay it, and finally refused to add another scratch to the long column of figures.

For two days Ben stayed away.

The third day bright and early Ben dropped in as a customer as a rule and fresh as a daisy.

"Say, Gaston, what'll settle my bill?" Gaston wanted to get rid of Ben quickly. "Ten cents," said he in a disgusted tone.

Ben put ten cents on the bar. Gaston was delighted.

"Well, Ben, what are you waiting for?" "When a man settles his bill say it customary to get 'em up."

Gaston laughed and Ben helped himself. —Kansas City Globe.

Irving's profit out of "Macbeth" is reckoned at $200 a week.

Major Parker's Funeral.

CONDUCTED WITH MASONIC RITES—BEAUTIFUL FLORAL OFFERINGS.

The funeral of the late E. D. Parker was held from the residence 190 Geneva street at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. At 10 minutes past 4 a quartette composed of Miss Gertrude Burlingame, Miss Jessie Cuykendall, Charles Nelson and Olin Strong, sang a hymn and then Rev. Dr. Brainerd, pastor of St. Peter's church, of which the deceased was a member, read the funeral service, after which the quartette sang another hymn and then the house was vacated by all save members of the family and those whose services were required. Another short service was conducted and then the casket was sealed and placed in the hearse. The procession was headed by a large delegation of Auburn Lodge, F. & A. M., followed by a contingent from Crocker Post G. A. R. Next came the hearse with R. K. Gardner, R. J. Myers, W. D. Rice, John E. Leonard, George Lonsbury and L. C. Mead, representing both the Masons and G. A. R. as pall bearers, on either side. The relatives and friends filled about twenty carriages, which completed the line. At Fort Hill, where the burial took place, Rev. Dr. Brainerd pronounced a short prayer, when A. G. Treat officiated as master of ceremonies and committed the remains to the grave according to the Masonic ritual. Scores of friends and intimate associates of the deceased during his life time, were gathered about the grave and there was an expression of sadness upon every face. Major Parker had been a friend to business associates who had met with reverses of fortune and the friends made by his open hearted generosity and willingness to extend aid to those in need, are legion.

On the casket, as the remains rested in the parlor of the residence, was the Regimental flag of the 14th in which the deceased served during the war of the rebellion as captain. The stars and stripes were also gathered about the bier which was surrounded by a profusion of exquisite floral emblems from friends.
