Constable and Former Deputy Sheriff Dies At Steel Street Home.

John E. Rich, 82, Clvil War Veteran and one of the best known public officials of Cayuga County for several decades, died at his spartment, 9 Steel Street, last evening after a brief iliness. Mr. Rich underwent an operation for removal of cataract from his eye several weeks Lie ago and was apparently in good health up to a week ago when he declined rapidly and passed peacefully away last evening. John E Rich was born in the Town of Cato and had resided in Just Coyuga County practically all his Just life. For many years he was a dep-Rep. uty sheriff of the county and also a state constable, serving in the latter a constable, serving in the latter ca- spe-pacity up to the time of his death, Spe-He was known as a thorough and sup painstaking official and highly esteemed by all with whom he came in contact.

Mr. Rich was one of the oldes members of Cato Lodge of Masons. in the Civil War he fought with the Third New York Light Artillery and served with valor in many of the major engagements of the war. He was a member of Seward-Crocker Post of the G. A. R.

The All Shillers, the only that has defeated the Steamrollers, local aggregation this season, by the score of 6-0 at Syracuse, the Rollers' first game will play here next Sunday. A hard fight is expected as this appears to be the crucial game on the Steamer's schedule, they hoping to wipe out the only defeat in two seesons.

As a comparison, the Schillers defeated the Elmira All Stars by a margin of 18-0 while the local buckies defeated the same team by a 6-0 United score, so the fans will have a real battle to look forward to Sunday at Falcon Field, the game starting at 3:30 p. m.

The locals will have their same heavy and speedy lineup. With a good week's workout they expect to come out on top. The Schillers are coming here with a string of victories which means they are out to annex the Central New York football title this season.
