SEE FIRST AND FOURTH PAGES.

Reception of the Return.

The election of Town Officers in this County took place to-day. We have made arrangements to receive the returns through special messengers to-night, and the result will be announced from this office as received. Office open all night, free to the public.

M. E. Church.

The Rev. GEORGE SKENE, of Claverack, is expected to preach in the M. E. Church this evening at 7:30.

Christened.

The new tender to Rogers Steamer No. 2, was last night christened the "C. A. Dingman," in honor of ex-Former Dingman.

Lecture at Ghent.

Rev. J. B. Drury will lecture in the Reformed Church, at Ghent Depot, to-morrow evening. Subject: "What is the Difference?" The proceeds will be applied to the benefit of the Church.

Help for Postage.

Augustus Behrens, of this city, and Benjamin Candal, of Castile, will find letters in the Albany postoffice, which are held for the want of stamps.

Our Show Friends.

Duprez & Benedict's minstrels appear at Schenectady on Thursday, March 9th.

N. C. Forrester's company closed a very successful season at Quincy, Ill., on the 23d ult.

Town Meetings.

Our friends in the country are having a splendid day for their town meetings which are being held to-day. At Greenport and Claverack the election is progressing quietly, and considerable interest is being felt for the head of the ticket.

In Trouble.

A vendor of brooms came to this city yesterday, and had better luck in filling his keg with whiskey than he did in selling brooms, for he was found to be City Marshal PRICE "clock full." The officer took the horse to a livery stable, and the owner to jail. This morning he was allowed to depart.

Prof. Blanchard's Reception.

All those who took part in the Benefit Concert at City Hall, last Tuesday evening, are cordially invited to meet Prof. F. A. BLANCHARD, at Van Vleck's Hall, this (Tuesday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

Presbyterian.

The Rev. JOHN MCVEY, of New Lebanon, who delivered an earnest and eloquent discourse in the Presbyterian Church last evening, has kindly consented to fill the desk at the same place this evening. The discourse of this talented young divine was listened to by a large and attentive audience last evening.

Horse Thieves at Work.

We learn that the stable of the Rev. ALONZO FRACK, of the Claverack Institute, was entered last night, and a horse, wagon and harness taken thence. There is no clue to the thieves, but we are inclined to the belief that the property will be returned. The officers of this city are in search of the offenders.

The River.

The river is moving from above, and the river is said to be almost clear, in fact there is nothing to impede navigation. The opening is about three weeks earlier than last year.

The N.Y. of the Power Line, will leave New York to-morrow night, and the City of Hudson will probably be put upon its route on Monday next.

The breaking up has been very moderate, there being no freshet, and hardly enough snow upon the ground to cause one now.

At Columbusville Creek the ice is badly broken in, and will not be removed until we have a rain, except by the rays of the sun.

The ferryboats in this vicinity are making regular trips, and navigation may be said to have fairly commenced.

Arrest of a Brute.

The examination of Nathaniel Jones, of Ulster county, charged with the commission of a most brutal and fiendish crime. It will be recollect that this same Indian Doctor visited this city about a year ago, and took rooms at the Gleason House. He appeared, however, to be better versed in the mysteries of "hunting the tiger" (probably acquired at a tender age, in "his native forests") than the healing art, and making loud boastings of his professional accomplishments, some of our "sporting men" took him at his words, and, to use the vernacular, effectively "cleansed him out," and the doctor was compelled to seek other and more verdant fields of operation. The Ulster Gazette gives the following particulars of his recent arrest:

"Our readers will remember that during a portion of last summer a good looking Indian, calling himself Dr. Tuckoo-ee, accompanied by a rather interesting female of that dusky race, claiming to be his wife, stopped at the Mansion House in Rhinebeck, and sought to obtain patients upon whom to practice the healing art with his wife's remedies. After a brief career in this line of business, he in accordance with his habits as a travelling healer of the ills that dash is heir to, sought a place in local history. On the 20th last, however, he made himself notorious, and drew upon himself the malice of the public by committing the dastardly crime of perpetrating a rape upon the person of Mrs. Sally E. Watt, Westville, Greene county, a widow lady of about fifty years of age.

Up on these grounds Justice PAYN issued a warrant, and officer LISK arrested Jones at Syracuse, and brought him to this city on the 10th of February last. He gave bail at that time for his appearance on the 7th inst.

This morning the examination was commenced in Police Court before Justice PAYN, and was progressing at the time we went to press. J. B. Longley, District Attorney, appears for the People, and H. Hoyt for the defendant.

Short Stops.

Trim your rapavines.
Everybody trapavines.
February had only ten clear days.
The street dirt will be sold on Thursday.

Hudson City Lodge, I. O. of O. F., meets this evening.

The robins were singing on the tree-tops this morning.

February was by far the shortest month in the year, because the last seven days were Lent.

A stated communication of Aquila Lodge, No. 100, F. & A. M., will be held to-morrow evening.

The Union Store.

Those who like good Goods should procure it at the Union Store, browned every day, and ground fresh to order. For all your groceries you should go to Ror's Union Store, Travay's building.

FATAL!—Some of our best chemists have decided that preparations for the hair containing "sugar lead" are POISONOUS and in many instances prove FATAL to the users thereof. "Blair's Hair Dye" has been thoroughly analyzed and pronounced uninjurious. It colors hair and whiskers, black or brown. Sold by all druggists.

DEATHS.

An observing traveler who passed a few hours in our city short time since, gives his impression through the columns of the Albany Daily Times, that the only inmate of the Union Store, by the Rev. T. Ellis, Mr. MARKS MAGLY, of Galathia, and Miss SUSAN MILLER, of Copake.
