

CITY OF AUBURN.

ONE WEEK'S NEWS BOILED DOWN.

An Entire Page Filled With Interesting Local Matters.

Saturday was the last day for payment of city taxes at 2 per cent. added.

James Manchester of 137 North Street, an aged man, is recovering from an overdose of coal gas.

The name of the prison guard which was transferred Saturday to the substitute list, was Michael Boyle.

A 3 per cent semi-annual dividend was last week declared by directors of the Cayuga County National bank.

For stealing a wrench from Fred McMullin for whom he worked, William Jones was fined $10 or ten days in jail.

John Kehue is a plaster by occupation, John got drunk and was sent to jail for ten days. One Republican vote was thereby lost.

County Treasurer Cook has issued a liquor certificate to Augustus T. Burk for the Lewis hotel in Chapel street. The price was $175.

The Rev. C. N. Clement Brown will begin a series of lectures on the history of the Protestant Episcopal church, this evening at St. John's.

One night last week an attempt was made to effect a burglarious entrance into the store of Frank C. White at 7 Burt avenue. It was unsuccessful.

A dance was given in A. O. H. hall, Genesee street, Monday evening, for the benefit of Mrs. Mary Valentine, who is convalescing after a lengthy illness.

The Bath Soldiers' home is over-crowded and Grand Army posts have been notified of the condition, and to entertain no more applications for the present.

A copper boiler was stolen from the residence of the Hickey family at 111 Franklin street, Friday morning. It is supposed that the thieves are boys. The police are investigating the affair.

Fred P. Eisenberg, Ralph P. Bliss, Howell Wood, Homer L. Post, Clayton G. Mabey, Fred C. Hicks, and Richard D. Hudson came home from Colgate university to cast their votes on Tuesday.

The Welcome club, a popular social organization, is making great preparations for a Thanksgiving eve ball. The Genesee Opera house has been engaged and it is promised, the floor will be in the best of condition.

Catherine Ryan, a woman who had served a previous term of imprisonment was received at the Woman's prison last week, under sentence of ten years. She was convicted this time in Brooklyn for larceny, second offense.

Burglars made an attack upon the residence of John Dolph, 3 Beach avenue, Monday night. They succeeded in gaining an entrance into the woodshed in the rear of the house, but were unable to get into the house itself.

Miss Mary Alida Bratt of 5 Fort street, died Saturday at the advanced age of 88 years. She was one of the oldest residents of this city, having been born in 1808 and resided here almost continuously during her long life.

James H. Rogers, a machinist in the employ of the New Birdall company, had his foot injured while at work in the shop last Friday. A heavy bar of iron fell from a bench upon it. Rogers fainted, but soon revived and was taken home.

DeForest Ford, of 97 Wall street, has some raspberry bushes which are loaded with a second crop of fruit. The berries are large and luscious. One remarkable feature connected with them is they are twins, each berry consisting of two joined together.

An old harness was stolen from the barn of Arthur McIntyre, 78 Nelson street, Monday night. The harness was not very valuable, but there was still some wear in it. The barn was not locked and the thief had an easy time getting inside.

The "Lewis" formerly known as the Exchange hotel, opened for business Monday. This house has been thoroughly renovated and furnished new throughout. Augustus T. Burke, the proprietor, has taken this house and become one of Auburn's citizens.

Charles Mills of State Street, went to the metropolis the other day with the fondest anticipations of meeting the girl he loved but had not seen for many years. She arrived from England on time and a clergyman was immediately sought to make the twin one.

The Survivors' association, composed of the 27th and 33d regiments, N. Y. Vol. Infantry and the 1st N. Y. Veteran Cavalry, will meet in re-union at Elmira on Nov. 10 and 11. There are only about half a dozen residents in this city now. It is expected that all will attend the re-union.

George Horton of Weedsport, was released last week Wednesday from the county jail after serving a term of thirty days for public intoxication. Friday morning he was back again in his old quarters having been convicted again of the same offense before Squire Storke, who sentenced the culprit to thirty days, straight.

The Y. M. C. A. has secured the services of Dr. Fred H. Parker, as medical examiner for the gymnasium. This is in addition to the association corps which has long been needed. The benefit of the doctor's suggestions for special training in cases where it is necessary can not help but be a great advantage to the members of the gymnasium.

The low brick building in Exchange street which for years was known as MXT hose house and afterward as the home of the Protective is now succumbing to the march of improvement. A new and modern plate glass front is being put in and the building will be given up to business purposes. Lakey, the harness dealer, having leased the premises.

The first announcement in regard to the Morgan lecture course was made last week at the Theological seminary. The lectures this year will be of an entirely different character from what they have been in previous years. This year they will be largely of a literature character. Dr. Van Dyke of the Brick Presbyterian church of New York city, will be the first lecturer. The dates set for the lectures are Nov. 17, 18.

Prison workshops were closed Tuesday and the convicts remained in their cells. W. S. Gilliam has purchased the grocery business of W. L. Carrington at 45 Cayuga street.

John Fry, the Orchard street grocer and market-man, made a general assignment Wednesday, to John S. Brown, Andrew Burgess a creditor, to the amount of $300 was preferred.

St. Paul's lodge, No. 124, F. and A. M., held a regular communication Monday night in Masonic hall, Exchange Street, and raised a fellow-craft brother to the sublime degree of a master mason.

The boss barbers in this city have decided to join in the movement for the formation of a State Boss Barbers' Protective association, in accordance with the appeal of the boss barbers of Rochester.

The Auburn Free Reading room for workmen was reopened Wednesday for the twelfth consecutive season. This popular institution is steadily growing in favor year by year, and the attractions will tend to swell the number of visitors this season beyond all previous years.

Charles Fonda, one of the Stevens' non-union molders who was engaged in the recent alteration with union men, and who was charged with fighting and engaging in a breach of the peace, was at the City hall Friday, prepared to plead guilty. His case stands adjourned until Nov. 9.

Irving Walker and Ada Walker his wife, charged with making and passing counterfeit money, were held at James-town for trial last week at the Auburn term of the U. S. court to be held this month. A large quantity of counterfeit money was found in their possession, together with the dies for making the same.

Marriage of deaf mutes is of rare occurrence. Such an union was cemented at 9 Hamilton avenue on Wednesday at the residence of S. A. Tabor. The bride was Miss Matilda Arnold, for five years a member of the Tabor household and the bridegroom Calvin H. Brown of Oneida, in which village the speechless couple will reside.

Word has been received in New York of the death at Angoum, West Africa, on Oct. 12, of Rev. Arthur W. Marling, who for 17 years was a missionary in that country. Fever caused his death. The Rev. Mr. Marling will be remembered by Auburnians from the fact that he married Jeannette Cameron of this city, who shared his work as a missionary in Africa.

The annual meeting of the Cayuga County Political Equality Club will be held in the rooms of the Woman's Educational and Industrial Union, William street, Auburn, N. Y., Tuesday, November 10, 1896. All are invited. Presidents of local clubs and town committee women, are especially urged to be present and bring reports of suffrage work in their vicinity.

Patrick Higgins of O'Neill avenue met with an accident Saturday. Mr. Higgins was employed on the new Koenig brewery. He was at work on the third story and had occasion to come down. He started down with a hod of bricks and his descent was rather more sudden than he had expected. In some way he slipped and before he could recover he had fallen to the second story a distance of about 15 feet. No bones were broken but he was bruised somewhat.

Funeral services of the late Lydia Bills, daughter of Chester S. and Anna M. Bills who died early Sunday morning, was largely attended at the family residence, 74 Lansing street, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. W. H. Hubbard officiated. The following young ladies acted as honorary bearers: Misses Mamie Cooper, Lizzie Graham, Lizzie McGarr, and Bella Tooley. The acting bearers were Walter Sanders, Richard Graham, William Nolan and Daniel Cuddy. The burial was in Soule cemetery.

In Chedell place and Easterly avenue, dirt has been placed up by the city, extending fully into the middle of the road. Electric lights on South street, and Easterly avenue do not give any warning of the danger and Tuesday night at about 8:45 o'clock Thomas Jones's carriage was overturned, the horse ran away, a man was injured and the carriage badly broken. The horse was also badly injured. A hack almost met with the same fate at the same spot.

The well known horseman, Thomas Fow, was found dead in bed Tuesday. For some time he had been employed at the stock farm of James Gallagher, near the Four Mile house on the lake road and it was there that he died. Coroner Tripp was summoned and decided that death was due to apoplexy and that an inquest was not necessary. A burial permit was therefore issued. The deceased was a Yorkshire Englishman 68 years of age. He was for a long time employed by Judge Teller and later worked at the driving park.

The Physicians' Protective association of Cayuga county held their annual meeting, Friday. There was a large attendance of representative physicians who discussed the business end of their profession. The usual banquet was omitted. The officers elected were Dr. C. O. Baker, president; Dr. A. L. Hall, Fair Haven, vice president; Dr. Charles A. Gwynn, secretary; Dr. R. W. Robinson, treasurer; executive committee, the officers and Dr. Voorhes and Oberman; Finance committee—Drs. Seltou, Cheesman and Geria.

Closed by Sheriff Byer.

On Monday afternoon last the two stores of John Lane, grocer and market-man, were closed by Sheriff Byer on executions aggregating over $2,000. Judgments were obtained in supreme court by compromise, as follows: Luke G. Lane, $127; John J. Lane, $1,095.00. Both of the plaintiffs are sons of the defendant and in the complaint they allege that each was employed as manager of one of the defendant's stores. Luke G. Lane was in charge of the place at 800 and 202 Genesee street for two years from January 15, 1891, for which he has not received pay for his services. John J. Lane served in a similar capacity for two years from January 19, 1887 at the market No. 145 1-2 State Street.

Ripans Tabules cure torpid liver. Ripans Tabules cure satulance.

Judgments in City Court.

O. L. Richardson and John D. Simpson, executors vs. Stephen Burns, $5.50, for rent.

Willis H. Shaw vs. Matthew Mochler, $10.08, price of buggy.

John W. Rice vs. Lavern A. Pierce, $10.41 for dry goods.

Dr. Thomas C. Sawyer vs. Chandler E. Irish, $2.50 for professional services.

Judgments Filed in County Clerk's Office.

Judgment in the sum of $125.20 was entered Friday in the county clerk's office in favor of C. August Keung against Jacob Briato, a saloon keeper. Judgment was obtained on a promissory note for $100 given Jan. 31, last.

A transcript of the judgment obtained in Chenango county by John T. Davidson against Benjamin E. Webster, was filed in the county clerk's office, Friday. The amount of the judgment was $7,500; costs $27.70.

Post-Election Campaign Notes.

John J. Junio spoke at Manhattan last Saturday and at Haverstraw Monday evening. Both towns are located near New York city.

E. J. Waldron closed the campaign in this city Monday evening by a speech at Walsh's hall, 113 Orchard street. Mr. Waldron spoke in Tully last Friday evening.

Congressional candidate R. L. Drummond delivered twenty one speeches in the campaign. He concluded at King's Ferry on Monday evening. A majority of chairmen who presided at the meetings were free silver Republicans.

Confession of a Youthful Burglar.

J. Louis Barth runs a shoe shop on South Street next door to the rear entrance of the bicycle store of L. O'Rand Brothers, whose main entrance is 80 Genesee Street. A thin board partition separates the two places of business. A door, made of the same material, is fastened by an old-fashioned latch and catch.

When one of the bicycle firm entered his store last Sunday he discovered that the rear door which opened into the shoe shop had been forced open. A pair of gloves was the only thing taken and they from Barth's shop.

On Monday, Louis A. Barth, son of the shoemaker, was arrested after quite a chase, and soon afterward confessed his guilt. Young Barth was once before arrested for theft. His examination was set down for yesterday.

Rescued From a Water, Suicidal Grave.

Max Myer is proprietor of a saloon in Union Springs. Himself and wife do not get along very well in the matrimonial harness. On Sunday evening Max said something that broke her heart. So she thereupon declared that life was not worth his living, and also, that she would forthwith proceed to Cayuga lake and give her body over to the big and little fishes. As she departed from the family domicile Max said to himself that the woman did not possess sufficient nerve to execute the threat. Therein Max was mistaken. Mrs. Myer waded out into the cool water until the iniquitous touched her knees, when she was rescued by her father and another man. Max may be a better husband to her, now that he knows that she possesses more grit than simply to go to bed and cry herself to sleep.

An Appeal for the Rescue Mission.

The City Rescue Mission with its record of useful work respectfully solicits a share in the generosity of the public spirited and philanthropic people of Auburn. No one enterprise has a monopoly of good; but it is believed that the Rescue Mission is well worth supporting. It keeps an open door every day in the year to the wandering and sinful. Its meetings every evening are a help and encouragement to many. Some have been reformed and converted through its influence. Superintendent Lewis E. Howe does an efficient and valued service in meeting discharged prisoners and facilitating their safe exit from the city, as well as contributing to their moral and religious welfare. The mission is supported by the gifts of individuals through the church or by private subscription. A few personal subscriptions would be very welcome now. Will not those who have been contributors or who feel an interest send a gift to the undersigned, FRIDERICK W. PALMER, Pres. of Gen. Com.

Read.

When you need a pair of rubber boots you want the best, boots that will stand hard wear, boots that won't crack. Gold Seal Snap Proof boots are by all odds the best made. They are sold only at McGARR'S, 1 State St.

A Shoplifter Visits Clothier Marshall.

In a different occasion, L. Marshall, the State Street clothing dealer, has missed articles from his store. The proprietor and his clerks entertaining suspicions as to whom the woman was, agreed that the next time she visited the store, she should be carefully watched. Saturday night when the store was crowded with customers, the suspected woman called. She grabbed a boy's reefer jacket, and, tucking it under her cape, quickly departed through the Hill Street entrance. Newton Marshall, the proprietor, who was detailed to watch the woman, pursued her but failed to find the coat on her person. Her home in Union Street was next visited by a policeman and evidences of theft were discovered. Confronted with damaging testimony, the woman broke down and confessed. She gave her name as Catherine Kale. She is married and has three children. Her husband is employed at Meyer & Co's. factory in Throop. The woman, a recent importation from Germany, can not speak English. She was released on bail for examination Nov. 10.

Sweets for the sweet. Each month finds the demand for Huyler's Bonbons increase over the preceding months. That's because they have merit. Sagar Drug Store.

Sulphuric Acid for preserving cider. 10c per qt. Sagar Drug Store.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Warranty Deeds Filed for Record in October, 1896.

Moravia National Bank to Lorenzo Erwin. Lot in Moravia village, $1,200.

William A. Arnold to Ernest W. Webb. Lot in Melrose park, $300.

Eugene Howard to Walter D. Manrow. Strip of land in Throop, $7.50.

Philip Witt to Delvin M. Witt. Lot in 1st Throop, $450.

William Thibode to Helen Hinkle. 1 1/2 lots in Melrose, $401.50.

William A. Arnold to Fred Gale. Melrose park lot, $100.

George Gale to Martha A. Soule. 27 1/2 acres, Cayo, $500.

Phoebe A. Hayden to Minnie L. Parsons. 8 acres, Brutus, $600.

John Dennis to Hiram D. Hazard. 108 acres, Niles, $1.

George R. Banks to Frank Banks. 3 pieces of land in Scipio, $1,000.

Mary F. Sinsley to Elizabeth T. Theall. 144 square rods, Genoa, $800.

David M. Dunning to Nelson H. Eldred. Lot on Owasco lake in Scipio, $500.

Clinton H. Jacobs to Harry B. Bestard. 86 1-2 acres, Victory, $400.

Jacob Klein, Jr. to Ezra N. Eldridge. Lot 108 Melrose park, $300.

Betsy Eaton to Reuben D. Munger. 1-2 acre, Niles, on west shore of Skaneateles lake, $50.

Esther L. Pulver to J. Knox Oakley. Summer resort on Owasco Lake in Venice, $400.

William H. Robinson to James Frine. 72 1-2 rods of land in Owasco, $700.

James Frine to Cloe Ann Valentine. 72 1-2 rods of land in Owasco, $650.

Cloe Ann Valentine to Smith G. Selover. 6 and 18 acres, Niles, $1,700.

Orrin Gaston to George F. Mabey. 1-2 acre, Fleming, $75.

Bridget Callaghan to Maria Carter. 84 rods of land, Brutus, $300.

Ferdinand Wildner to George C. Pearson. 18 acres, Owasco, $6,800.

Emeline Howland to Milton Rooks. Portland store property in Kellogsville, $50.

Ledyard D. Stewart to Newell Fenner. 3-4 acre, Genoa, $675.

Newell Fenner to Richard Cusack. 128 acres, Genoa, $5,675.

Abram Seeley to Hiram W. Babcock. 50 acres, Fleming, $3,000.

Pastor Hubbard Seeks Information.

On several occasions my attention has been called to the evils of the gambling habit among our young people. Yesterday I received information (name not given) of a young man not 21 years of age who is spending his earnings at the poker table, who has been a regular attendant upon our congregation. On Sunday evening, November 8th, I am expecting at our People's Praise and Gospel service to call the attention of the people to this terrible evil, and shall be glad of any further information than that which I at present possess, from others who are suffering from its terrible effects. Any information that may be communicated to me during the week will be considered confidential as far as concerns the names of the parties involved. I will thank you for issuing this request for information in your paper and may as I do not desire to exaggerate in the least this great evil which is ruining so many of our young people. Sincerely yours, W. H. HUBBARD, Pastor First Presbyterian church.

They Were Wedded in Skaneateles.

A large number of relatives, friends and acquaintances witnessed the ceremonies at St. Mary's church, in this village last Wednesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, which united in marriage, Miss Mary Mooney, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Mooney of this place, to John F. McGuire. Miss Julia Hart of Corning, N. Y., was bridesmaid, and Michael Cline of Auburn, best man. Robert Mooney and W. H. Henney acted as ushers. Rev. Father Purcell, pastor of the church, officiated. The relatives and a few friends of the bride and groom were entertained at the home of the bride's parents after the wedding. The couple received many valuable and appropriate presents. The best wishes of many friends followed Mrs. McGuire to her new home in Auburn. Mr. McGuire having a position as bookkeeper in the freight office of the New York Central railway in that city.—Skaneateles Free Press.

A sweet smile if displaying pretty teeth will make any woman pretty. Pearl-Tooth Powder will make discolored teeth pretty; whitens and polishes them. 25 cents. Sagar Drug Store.

Special Policemen—Chief's Report.

A regular monthly meeting of the Police Commissioners was held Saturday evening last. These special policemen for duty at the polling places were appointed.

Charles M. Blodgett, Charles H. Prince, William Peck, E. Rich, Walter Bench, William Stopped, A. George W. Lakey, Reuben Crook, John Keeley, James Dennis, Robert J. Carson, Charles A. Slocum, Edwin V. Robinson, Charles Atwell, Edward A. Patches, and Henry Brenner.

The chief of police presented his regular monthly report which contained the following statistics: Total number of arrests 61; 31 of whom were men; amount of fines collected $61; number of days lost by members of the police force 50 3-4 days; number of electric lamps unlighted, 317; number of hours unlighted, 442; number of doors found open, 20; number of lodgers, 19; complaints, 15; reports by officers, 2.

John W. Rice, Auburn.

Sarrigate's Court.

Hon. George B. Turner, Sarrigate—Walter E. Woolin, Clerk.

Joseph S. Smith, deceased, executor. Citation issued for proof of will returnable Nov. 17.

James Maycumber deceased, Auburn. Will probated. Letters testamentary issued to George H. Maycumber, sole executor named in the will. The estate is valued at $1,000 and is left to the testator's wife, Amanda Louise Maycumber, for use during her life. After her death it is to be distributed as follows: One-fourth to a daughter, Josephine Turnbull; one-fourth to a son, George H.; one-fourth to a son, Orson I.; one-fourth to a daughter, James Harrington, children of a deceased daughter, Mabel Harrington.

Smith O. Ferris, deceased, trs. R. L. Drummond appointed special guardian of R. C. Ferris.

Norman Smith, deceased, Brutus. John Rowcreek appointed special guardian of Norman Smith, Jr.

Ozium Merryfield, deceased, Scipio. Letters of administration issued to Thomas M. Hunt of Auburn, on filing a bond in $1,900 with Lewis Hunt and John D. Teller, sureties.

Nancy Cain, deceased, West Unity, Ohio. Letters of administration issued to Thomas M. Hunt of Auburn on filing a bond in $500 with Lewis Hunt and John D. Teller, sureties.

Mary J. Davis, deceased, West Unity, O. Letters of administration issued to Thomas M. Hunt, on filing a bond in $500.

Lemon A. Wilkinson, deceased, Seneca. Letters of administration issued to Mary W. Gates and Frances A. Beach who file a bond in $12,000 with B. C. Leonard, Edwin M. Sperry, Timothy Bridgen and Horace G. Post, sureties.

James Forbes, deceased, Niles. Will admitted to probate and letters issued to George W. Forbes, Arthur Fullmer and Philip Brown, appraisers.

Charles Standart, deceased, Auburn. Inventory of personal estate valued at $9,936 61, filed by appraisers James Lyon and N. C. Reed.

John Mansfield, deceased, Auburn. Letters of administration issued to Mary Mansfield on filing a bond in $2,000 with Jeremiah Finn and P. M. Heron, sureties.

Lyman H. Edmonds, deceased, Moravia. Letters of administration issued to Amanda Edmonds.

Fifteen Prison Officials Dismissed.

On Saturday last, thirteen prison officials were dismissed from the state's service. This action was made necessary by the diminished population of the prison; the law limits the number of guards and keepers to two for every twenty-eight inmates. The register of convicts, Saturday, shows that only sixty-eight keepers and guards are required at present. The list of men discharged are as follows:

Keepers—Thomas H. Gorman, William J. Tunis, William J. Baker, Edward J. Mullally, Francis E. Murphy, George H. Alford.

Guards—James Johnson, James Donovon, Myron DeWaters, McCloud Durkee, James H. Barnes, James L. Egaray, Patrick Ginnity.

When it becomes necessary in the future to employ additional officers all applicants for position must undergo civil service examinations and if successful in that, their names will be placed on the eligible list from which the warden will choose the lucky candidates.

Death of Lieutenant George R. Watson.

On Thursday evening of last week, Lieutenant George R. Watson died at his home in William street. For seven years he had been an invalid and during the last few years of his life he was unable to leave his room. He was a son of the late Robert and Margaret Watson and was born in this city, fifty-four years ago. Upon attaining his majority, he enlisted in the war in defense of his country and rose to lieutenant on Gen. Seward's staff and was with him through the fierce campaign of the Shenandoah Valley. He was a good soldier.

After the war, Lieutenant Watson removed to Detroit where he embarked in the hardware business with George Standart. Afterward he became the manager of the large Brush estate in Detroit in which capacity he served with great fidelity until incapacitated for business by illness. Seven years ago he returned to Auburn to spend his remaining days with his mother and sister, the former preceding him to the grave. He was a brother-in-law of Hon. T. M. Pomeroy and General W. H. Seward and a brother of Mrs. Lucy W. Bostwick.

Vim, Vigor and Vitality are supplied and increased by the use of our Beef, Iron and Wine. It is a perfect product made just as the medical works say it should be. It costs more than those made with cheap material. Pint bottles 50 cents. Sagar Drug Store.

White Pine Balsam, 25 cents. Break up new coughs and colds that hang on. Sagar Drug Store.

Huyler's Licorice Tablets, 10 cents. Just a little better than any other brand made. Sagar Drug Store.

Chiropractic Examination.

Free by Dr. E. F. Butterfield. There is no subject that requires so much study and experience as the treatment and cure of chronic diseases. The astonishing success and remarkable cures performed by Dr. Butterfield are due to the gift of Chiropractic; to the long study of the constitution of man and the curing of diseases from natural remedies. Let those given up by others call for examination. He cures the worst cases of Rheumatism, Catarrh, Piles, Female Weakness, asthma, Diseases of the heart, Lungs and Kidneys. Guarantees to cure Pains and no pay taken until the cure is made. Dr. Butterfield will visit the Osborne House, Auburn, Friday, November 13, for one day only.

Delicate Skins which are easily roughened and irritated by exposure to extreme weather become velvety and smooth when marshmallow cream is used. 35 cents. Sagar Drug Store.

Baby Hair Brushes, soft white bristles. 25 to 50 cents. Baby combs, 15 to 25 cents. Sagar Drug Store.

CAYUGA COUNTY.

NEWSY ITEMS FROM THE TOWNSHIPS

Condensed From Exchanges and Otherwise Gathered.

Miss Margery Keeler of Union Springs, is taking a course of musical study at the Ithaca conservatory.

Edwin Elting raised 700 bushels of corn from 4 1-2 acres on a farm owned by J. M. Bolme in the town of Owasco.

Hasteman and Goodfield of Cato, are drying 200 bushels of apples daily in their evaporator. They employ about seventy-five hands.

The Odd Fellows of Locke, have bought a lot of Philander Mead, on which they expect to build a block and ball this fall.

The rebuilding of the state pier at the head of Cayuga lake has been completed, the work exhausting the $1,000 appropriation made by the last legislature.

A liquor tax certificate was issued last week by County Treasurer Cook to William S. L. Frear, proprietor of a Union Springs hotel. The amount paid was $38.33.

Funeral services of James McGravy were held in Union Springs Catholic church on Saturday, October 24. The deceased, only 30 years of age was stricken with paralysis when in Illinois.

John Van Sickle of Aurelius, who lives about a mile and a half south of Cayuga, had a horse stolen from his pasture on Saturday night. He offers a reward of $25 for the recovery of the horse and something additional for the capture of the thief. The animal was a black one.

While assisting in unloading a boat load of stone one day last week to be used in the new bridge across the Seneca river, connecting the towns of Menz and Conquest one of the largest of the stones, weighing half a ton fell on O. B. Tanner's right foot, fracturing the ankle in a fearful manner.

Cayuga lake is literally alive with ducks these days. From Bull's grove and Cayuga Lake park up to the lake to Canoga, the birds may be seen floating in the center of the lake, undisturbed, as though people were oblivious of their being the most delectable game. The game may be easily seen from the car windows of the Central trains as they pass over the Cayuga lake bridge.—Waterloo News.

William Kelly, an esteemed citizen of the village of Montezuma, died last week at the age of 85 years. His health had not been good for some time. Mr. Kelly had been engaged in business as a merchant, and was an upright, honest, generous man. He leaves a wife, brother, a sister, two grandchildren, William and Charles Payne, and a large circle of friends to mourn his death and cherish his memory. Mr. Kelly was a brother-in-law of M. F. O'Connor of Auburn.

A vicious bull came near ending the career of Aaron Lee of Menz, one night last week. He had been kept in a box stall, which Mr. Lee entered carrying a lantern in one hand and a pitchfork in the other. The bovine objected to the light and charged it. Mr. Lee was knocked clear through the side of the stall to a place of safety. Once before the bull attacked his owner. The first exhibition of viciousness occurred in a